Ajahn Pasanno took ordination in Thailand in 1974. During his first year as a monk he was taken by his teacher to meet Ajahn Chah, with whom he asked to be allowed to stay and train. One of the early residents of Wat Pah Nanachat, the International Forest Monastery of Ajahn Chah's, Ven. Pasanno became its abbot in his ninth year. During his incumbency Wat Pah Nanachat developed considerably, both in physical size and in reputation, and Ajahn Pasanno has become a very well-known and highly respected monk and Dhamma teacher in Thailand. Ajahn Pasanno moved to California on New Year's Eve of 1997 to share the abbotship of Abhayagiri Buddhist Monastery.

Cator Shachoy began the practices of Buddhist meditation, Yoga, and Energetic Healing in 1990 as the result of chronic illness. Through the regular practice of these disciplines she began to recover her strength and vitality. In 1995 Cator moved to San Francisco, where she teaches yoga & meditation classes to adults and youth, and has a private practice in Cranio-sacral bodywork. In her classes, Cator emphasizes the potential for healing body, mind, and heart through mindful awareness. She delights in sharing these practices which inspire her life. Cator is a Master Practitioner @ Kabuki Spa, and is the founder of Youth Yoga Dharma.
